Please make sure your audio is connected, but video and microphone are muted when entering the meeting room.

How To Ask For Help ?

Our Lab Facilitators (LF) may be busy at helping other students in a breakout room. If you are ready to ask questions, please leave a chat message to “everyone” and wait patiently, the next available LF will assign you to a breakout room to assist you.

Once your questions are answered, you may stay in the breakout room where all participants in this room are taking the same course as you or leave the meeting room to quit Zoom. If you have more questions to ask, you may ask the participants in the breakout room or click “leave” to enter the main session and leave a chat message (you must return to the main room or the LF can’t see the message) to inform LF that you need more assistance.
