

GRADUATION 2023

Message from the President

Congratulations!

You completed your program and graduated from Douglas College. Your hard work, perseverance and commitment have paid off. It's time to celebrate, take pride in your accomplishments, and appreciate the support you've received along the way.

Graduation is one of my favourite times of year. Although I've participated in hundreds of convocation ceremonies, each one is truly special. The cheers and tears from the audience always remind me of what an important milestone the day is for all of us. From faculty, friends and families to support staff, administrators and many others, we are all so very proud of you.

These days, more than ever, I am also reminded of the vital importance post-secondary education plays in building a better society. Our vision is to graduate resilient global citizens, with the knowledge and skills needed to adapt, innovate and lead in a changing world. I hope you feel that your time at Douglas has prepared you to do just that, and to give back in whatever way you can to make the world a better place.

Looking ahead, some of you may be transitioning directly into a career. Some of you may be moving on to further studies. Just know that you will always have a home here. You are now a Douglas College alum. You are part of a very special community, and we will be watching with pride as you set out to achieve your dreams.

Enjoy this moment. You've earned it.

Dr. Kathy Denton, President
Douglas College

HONORARY FELLOW

Marcus Youssef

Douglas College awards an Honorary Fellow designation to recognize outstanding achievement or distinguished service by an individual on a community, provincial, national, or international scale. This year's Honorary Fellow is Marcus Youssef.

Marcus is a playwright, actor, director, broadcaster and educator living on unceded Coast Salish territory, also known as Vancouver. His plays have been produced in major cities around the world, from New York to Hong Kong. All of Marcus' work focuses on the question of difference, asking the audience, "How do we come to know those we imagine to be unlike us?"

Arts and culture, to Marcus, bear a central role in creating a more just, humane and fun society. He's been an artistic director, associate and advisor at countless Canadian arts organizations, growing the theatre and cultural sectors across the country. Currently he is the Playwright in Residence at Tarragon Theatre, Editorial Advisor at Canadian Theatre Review, and Artistic Associate at Vancouver's Newworld Theatre, as well as the International Artistic Associate at Farnham Maltings in England.

Marcus has been recognized with Canada's largest theatre award, the $100,000 Siminovitch Prize for Theatre. His other accolades include the Canada Council for the Arts' Staunch-Lynton Award, the Rio Tinto Alcan Performing Arts Award for BC artists, and the IKARUS Prize in Berlin, Germany.

A former professor at Concordia University and special appointee at Capilano, Marcus helped create Canada's first multi-institutional interdisciplinary Bachelor of Performing Arts; Douglas College is one of four participating post-secondaries. Marcus holds an MFA in Creative Writing from UBC and is a National Theatre School of Canada alumnus. In addition, he writes for print, radio and television at CBC, the Vancouver Sun and other publications.

Marcus' plays include Winners and Losers, King Arthur's Night, Jabber, The In-Between, Awkward and Embarrassing Conversations, Adrift, How Has My Love Affected You?, Peter Panties, A Line in the Sand, Ali and Ali & the aXes of Evil, Ali and Ali: The Deportation Hearings, East Van Panto: Wizard of Oz and East Van Panto: Pinocchio.

Marcus will be lauded as the newest Honorary Fellow during a graduation ceremony on June 14.

Graduation Distinction and Valedictorians

Graduation Distinctions are recognized with the presentation of a gold honour cord. Students awarded the graduation distinction are students who have achieved a minimum GPA of 3.67 in the qualifying courses for their credential.

Eligible students are noted with an *.

Valedictorians are high achieving students chosen by their Faculties, generally from the highest-level credential.

PLEASE NOTE

Graduation lists in this program were prepared before credentials were awarded and may not be complete; names of some graduates may be missing. Douglas College apologizes for any inadvertent omissions or errors.

Not all of the students listed have fulfilled their graduation requirements at the time of printing. In the event of a discrepancy between this program and the Douglas College graduation roster, the Douglas College graduation roster shall be taken as correct.

Credentials awarded at Douglas College

Douglas College awards credentials commensurate with requirements necessary at the time of program completion. All credentials are awarded through Enrolment Services once it is determined that candidates satisfy program requirements.

The types of credentials are typically defined by the length of study and the number of required credits in a defined program of study.

Certificate: A defined program of study involving one year or less of study.

Advanced Certificate: A defined program of study offered to students who already have at least a Certificate and who complete additional specialized courses.

Diploma: Limited-enrolment areas – In a specific field consisting of a defined program of study, requiring a minimum of 60 credits; Open-enrolment areas – In selected courses within a defined program of study, requiring a minimum of 60 credits.

Specialization: A thematic specialization for a Diploma is met by completing 18 or more credits, at least nine of which are at the 2000 level, of a thematically linked list of courses within a diploma program.

Post-Degree Diploma: One year (minimum 30 credits) of a defined program of study for students who already possess a bachelor's degree; at least 50 percent or 15 credits of coursework in the diploma is at the 3000/4000 level.

Post-Baccalaureate Diploma: Two years (minimum 60 credits) of a defined program of study for students who already possess a bachelor's degree; at least 50 percent or 30 credits of the coursework in the diploma is at the 3000/4000 level; at least 30 credits must consist of courses for which no other credential has been awarded.

Graduate Diploma: One or two years of a defined program of study following the completion of a bachelor's degree; coursework in the diploma is at the 5000 level.

Honours Credential: As determined by each program area, a defined program of enriched study, including such requirements as guided studies, supervised research and/or a major paper and including a specified minimum Grade Point Average.

Associate Degree: In Arts or Sciences, requiring a minimum of 60 credits of first- and second-year university-transfer courses; may include a thematic emphasis or discipline specialization.

Bachelor's Degree: A minimum of 120 credits in a specific program field consisting of a defined program of study, including a minimum of 45 credits taken in courses at the 3000/4000 level.

Continuing Education Certificate of Program Completion: Issued when formal recognition of successful completion of a non-credit program is required.

Training Group Certificate: Issued when a formal credential of successful completion for a Training Group non-credit program is required.

History of Academic Regalia

The origin of academic regalia can be traced back to the 12th and 13th centuries with the founding of the first universities. The attire worn by scholars and students followed that of the clergy with long gowns and hoods that covered the head. The gowns and hoods provided warmth in unheated buildings and set students apart from citizens.

In the latter part of the 14th century, some colleges in England required scholars and students to wear a long gown. Oxford and Cambridge during the time of King Henry VIII mandated an academic dress code. This tradition continued in the American colonies where a standard academic dress supported the concept of equality among students.

In 1894, it was determined that gowns would be black, with bachelors' gowns made of wool and masters' gowns of silk. Doctors' gowns would use black velvet with three bars across the sleeves.

Changes to the colours used to represent certain faculties occurred in the 19th century. The white fur trim for the BA hoods of Oxford and Cambridge was adopted to represent arts, letters and humanities. Other colours were associated with different disciplines. A sample of the colours associated with the various disciplines is listed below.

Arts – White

Business Administration – Light Grey

Nursing – Apricot

Physical Education – Palmetto

Post-Baccalaureates – Black

Social Work – Chamois

Therapeutic Recreation – Salmon

The official colour(s) of the college or university are used to line the hoods.

Caps, mortarboards and tassels are worn by graduates receiving a credential. During the commencement exercises, many institutions have followed the practice of requiring the tassel to be on the right side before degrees are conferred and moving the tassel to the left once the degree is granted.
