

Faculty of Child, Family and Community Studies
Indigenous Pathway Application

(To be filled out after Douglas College General Admissions Application Submitted)

Name:
Phone Number:
Student Number:

1of2

Are you Indigenous? (First Nations, Metis or Inuit) Please name community or Nation:

Tell us why you are interested in the Indigenous Pathway:

If you are not First Nations, Inuit or Metis, tell us about your experience working with Indigenous communities and what makes you suitable for this Pathway:

Please list cultural training or ceremonial work that you have participated in that you feel is most relevant to your work with Indigenous children, youth and families:

Not sure what program you want? Do not have the English requirements?

That's okay! Contact the Program Advisor to help you walk through these questions... it is one of the reasons we are here to help you through the process.

Please complete the following information:

2of2

1. Age

I will be 18 years or older as of December 31, of this year.

2. I am applying for the:

Child and Youth Care Indigenous Pathway

3. Douglas College Admission Application Submitted

Yes, Date Submitted:

No, But, I will submit one by:

4. Volunteer or Paid Experience - Not required for 2021 Applications due to Covid.

I have completed the required hours of volunteer or paid work with children, youth and families. The form has been filled out by my supervisor and submitted to the Indigenous Pathway Program Advisor.

OR

I have not yet completed my volunteer/ work experience hours but will complete them by: Date:

Location:

5. English Language Requirement

I have met the English requirement of English 12 (C or better) or equivalent

I sent the official documents to the Registrar's Office with my application or

I will send the documents to the Registrar's Office by:

OR

I have contacted the Indigenous Pathway Program Advisor to make a plan to strengthen and assess my English reading and writing skills.

Please note: Applicants must APPLY online to Douglas College and pay the application fee prior to submitting any supporting documents.

Please send completed form to:
ipathway@douglascollege.ca