

CAREER DEVELOPMENT PRACTICE ADVANCED CERTIFICATE ONLINE

ACDP 200

Information Management is designed to develop an in depth assessment of communities, demographics, supports and labour market outlook. Learn how to identify and present a community proposal to support community needs.

February 7 - March 6 2021 | CRN 11004 | $508.00

ACDP 100

Case Management is designed to show career professionals how to build and manage effective career planning services. Learn skills around report writing and rationales, funding structures as well as the complete case management cycle.

February 28 - March 27 2021 | CRN 11037 | $508.00

ACDP 400

Career Programs Management is designed toward innovative thinking and entrepreneurship. Learn how to develop a mock organization including infrastructure, funding proposals and people management from a business service perspective.

March 14 - April 10 2021 | CRN 11005 | $508.00

ACDP 500

Indigenous Employment focuses on the impact of modern history and systemic barriers to employment for Indigenous populations. Learn about labour market identity, skills gaps, unique strengths and strategies to manage these challenges with a focus on increasing job retention. Optional

April 25 - May 22 2021 | CRN 21001 | $508.00

ACDP 300

Career Documents is targeted to building an online professional presence that will ultimately support clients in successfully gaining employment. Learn about how to present yourself through social media platforms and align your brand with a projected company brand.

September 8 - Oct 3 2020 | CRN 31077 | $508.00

To Register: 604-527-5472

More Information: FACSCE@douglascollege.ca