QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

- Relevant post-secondary education and 2 years of experience in the delivery of community services or programs, specifically from a health-related or social agency setting.
- Desire to work with people who are affected by dementia and their care partners.
- Experience with Indigenous communities, or a strong interest in learning more about Indigenous cultural approaches.
- Experience supervising and supporting volunteers to deliver services in a program or group setting.
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office and database experience.
- Strong organizational and time management skills; excellent interpersonal and customer service skills.
- Proven leadership abilities and able to work independently.
- Experience providing support and information in a human services environment.
- Some knowledge and experience with dementia (personal or professional) and an understanding of related issues.
- Able to lift and move equipment used in the program.

PLEASE NOTE: The successful candidate will be asked to provide proof of full COVID-19 vaccination and will also be required to obtain clearance through the BC government online criminal record check system.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- Some evening and weekend work may be required. Flexibility regarding scheduling is expected. Must have access to reliable transportation.

ABOUT US

There are approximately 70,000 British Columbians living with dementia, and this number is growing. For every person living with dementia, there are many more people affected, including family, friends, co-workers and other members of their communities. Our vision is of a world without Alzheimer's disease and other dementias and that world begins with a more dementia-friendly society, where people affected by dementia are acknowledged, supported, and included. When you work for the Alzheimer Society of B.C., you help us realize that vision by connecting more British Columbians to the support and education they need at any point on their dementia journey. You help us challenge stigma and change the future for people affected by dementia. You help us show people affected by dementia that they're not alone.

We offer a flexible Hybrid work environment, including opportunities for a nine-day fortnight and/or the ability to work from home on occasion. We also offer:

- Excellent employee benefits package.
- Competitive hourly rate of $24.51 to $36.70 (at .8FTE, this equates to a salary range of $35,680 to $53,440)
- Participation in Group RRSP.
- Employee and Family Assistance Program for you and your dependents.
- Growth and learning opportunities.
- Generous leave provisions (vacation, sick, personal days, etc.).
- 13 paid statutory holidays a year.

Equity, diversity and inclusion are essential to societal change and healthy workplaces. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have historically been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

EMAIL your resume with a cover letter that tells us how your experience matches the position. Please include salary expectation. Only PDF or Word files.

This posting will remain open until filled. Interested candidates are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

Thank you for your interest. Please note only shortlisted candidates will be contacted directly.
