Job Ad

Join Our Team as a Recreation Worker!

German-Canadian Care Home is excited to welcome an energetic and compassionate Recreation Worker to our dedicated and resident-focused team. This full-time opportunity runs Sunday to Thursday, with a combination of day and evening shifts, and offers a competitive wage of $30.72 per hour in accordance with the HEU Collective Agreement (Grid 22).

In this rewarding role, you will make a meaningful difference in the lives of seniors, particularly those living with dementia by creating and leading engaging, purposeful, and joy-filled recreation programs. We are looking for someone who brings creativity, enthusiasm, and a genuine passion for building connections and fostering a strong sense of community among residents.

What You'll Bring:

- Graduation from a recognized Therapeutic Recreation Program
- A minimum of one year of recent experience working with older adults with dementia (or an equivalent combination of education, training, and experience)
- A Class 4 Driver's License
- Certifications in Fitness Theory for Seniors, First Aid, Serving It Right, and Food Safe
- Knowledge of the Eden Alternative philosophy is considered an asset

You will work across two care home locations in Vancouver, BC, supporting residents through both on-site programming and community outings. Strong communication and organizational skills are essential, along with the physical ability to lead programs and manage bus trips.

If you are passionate about enriching the lives of seniors and thrive in a supportive, collaborative, and dynamic care environment, we would love to hear from you. Apply today and help us create moments of joy every day.
