| REGULATIONS | | |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Your Student Loan Service Bureau may be instructed to deduct your deferred fees from your Student Loan/Grant and forward payment to Douglas College. It is your responsibility to ensure that the fees are paid in full by the new tuition deadline. If a Fee Deferral expires and tuition fees are not paid in full, you may incur late fees. In addition, a hold will be placed on your account that will prevent you from doing the following: accessing the Registration System, obtaining a transcript, using the College Library, receiving grades, or being allowed to graduate. If your funding is delayed, or if you become ineligible for your funding, it is your responsibility to pay the fees by the new tuition due date. All regular College policies, including refunds, will apply. | | |
| DECLARATION | | |
| Please defer payment of my tuition fees for the semester. I have been approved for student loan/grant funding by the Ministry of Advanced Education (if applicable). I have attached a copy of my Funding Letter (Student Loans/Grants only) as confirmation of my eligibility for a student loan/grant. I, _____, acknowledge that I am responsible for payment of my tuition fees. If I drop course(s), decide not to attend class(es), or become ineligible for my award, I am still responsible for payment of my tuition fees and/or any penalty assessment. | | |
