

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this document as the official and general definitions of Douglas College's (DLI #O19360973702) Academic Calendar for immigration purposes. This will help clarify any concerns regarding the student's academic history.

Academic Semesters

Douglas College has three academic semesters per year:

- Fall semester: September – December
- Winter semester: January – April
- Summer semester: May – August

Enrolment Status

- Full-time enrolment at Douglas College means registering and completing a minimum of 9 credits per academic semester. If a student withdraws or receives a W, UN, UNW, FD, or AUD the course will not count towards the full-time course load. As a clarification note, a grade of 'F' does not carry academic credits but counts towards the full-time course load of a student. Please refer to our grading policy for other grades that can count towards a full-time course load.

Scheduled Breaks

- Scheduled Breaks are defined as Study Breaks, Summer semesters, and the time between semesters from the day after the exam period until the day before the first day of classes of the next semester. Students are required to enroll in the semesters before and after the scheduled break.
- Summer semester is not a scheduled break if it is the student's first or last semester in the program.
- All Diplomas, Associate Degrees, Bachelor's Degrees, Post-Baccalaureate Diplomas and Early Childhood Education Certificate programs offered to international students are eligible for scheduled breaks.
- During a scheduled break (Summer semester), a student can take full-time studies, part-time studies, or a break from studies.
- Summer semester is not considered a scheduled break for Post-Degree Diplomas and Certificate programs (excluding the Early Childhood Education Certificate program).
- For more information on Douglas College's Enrolment Status and Scheduled Breaks please visit: <https://www.douglascollege.ca/international-students/current-international-students/enrollment-status>

Douglas College's Response to COVID-19

Douglas College changed the delivery of in-person classes to online classes in response to the COVID-19 pandemic during the following semesters: Winter 2020, Summer 2020, Fall 2020, Winter 2021, Summer 2021. In the Fall 2021 semester, Douglas College returned to regular delivery modes.

If you have any questions, please contact us at dcj@douglascollege.ca. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Douglas College International

Douglas College International
DLI #O19360973702