POST-GRADUATION WORK PERMIT ELIGIBILITY

Graduates may be eligible for a Post-Graduation Work Permit (PGWP) upon completion of an eligible program at Douglas College. Eligibility is not guaranteed and subject to the criteria established by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC).

A complete list of Douglas College programs and their descriptions is available at douglascollege.ca/programs. Each program is assigned a Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code that accurately reflects its content and focus.

- Programs listed in this document have CIP Codes that align the field of study requirement under IRCC's current PGWP eligibility criteria for college programs.
- Douglas College bachelor degree programs are not listed in this document because, according to IRCC's current PGWP eligibility criteria, there are no field of study requirements for graduates who hold a bachelor degree.
