

Request for Exception - Transfer Credit

IMPORTANT INFORMATION
Transfer requests for courses taken seven or more years in the past will be processed on an individual basis. For more information, please refer to the Recognition of Transfer Credit Policy . Please read and review the policy before submitting a Request for Exception-Transfer Credit.
INSTRUCTIONS
1. Submit a written/signed letter with a rationale for your request. Include the following details in your letter for each course being requested: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why the transfer credit is being requested at this time (e.g. past the time limit)? Which course, admission or program requirement, including graduation, do you hope to satisfy with your transfer request? Why the course credits previously earned are still applicable/relevant (e.g. have you completed further education or work experience within the same field of study as the course you hope to transfer?) 2. An original transcript if you have not already provided one to Douglas College. Note: detailed course outlines may be requested. 3. Once complete, email the package to exceptionrequest@douglascollege.ca
