Subject & Course No.	Descriptive Title	Semester Credits
F:	Calendar Description: This course continues an examination of a person's experience with episodic variances in wellness throughout the life cycle and their impact on client system stability and harmony. The Douglas College Department of Psychiatric Nursing conceptual framework is expanded upon and applied to the health assessment of the individual client. Emphasis is on the integration and application of the concepts related to episodic variances in wellness on previous concepts and patterns to broaden the scope of practice. Human pathophysiology and pharmacological management related to selected exemplars of acute variances in wellness will be presented. Professional relationships, ethical and legal issues and trends in health care will be critically examined.
